

The first bees tend to emerge in late February - keep your eyes peeled. You may like the attached 'Nature Detectives' bug hunt checklist

<https://www.woodlandtrust.org.uk/media/48349/minibeast-hunt.pdf>

If you'd like to learn more about bees and how to draw one you could try this tutorial - <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=H04aUHY6fss>

If you'd like to learn more about honey bees and their 'waggle dance', you could watch this David Attenborough narrated 3 minute video.

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=LU_KD1enR3Q

Bees are key pollinators.

75% of the world's main food crops rely on animals for pollination.

Bees are struggling with climate change. 24% of Europe's bumblebees are threatened with extinction.

Young
CLIMATE
Warriors

www.youngclimatewarriors.org