

Protected Characteristics Booklist

These books are read as class texts over the course of the year to encourage positive and guided discussion of the protected characteristics.

At Cottesmore St Mary, we strive to create an environment where children can share their opinions and ask questions.

Reception
Learning Intention	To say what I think	To understand that it's OK to like different things	To make friends with someone different	To understand that all families are different	To celebrate my uniqueness
Year 1
Learning Intention	To like the way I am	To understand what it might feel like to be seen as different.	To recognise people are different ages	To celebrate our uniqueness and talents	To understand that we share the world
Year 2
Learning Intention	To celebrate family diversity	To understand we share the world	To understand one makes someone feel proud	To feel proud of being different	To be able to work with everyone in my class
Year 3
Learning Intention	To feel proud of who you are	To understand what discrimination is	To find a solution to a problem	Use strategies to help someone who feels different	To be welcoming
Year 4
Learning Intention	To understand when to be assertive	To understand our relationships change as we grow older	To show compassion to refugees	To understand that we are all equal	To be who you want to be
Year 5
Learning Intention	To accept everyone for who they are	To celebrate difference and uniqueness	To understand how grief can affect us	To celebrate diversity	To understand how friendships can evolve
Year 6
Learning Intention	To stand up to discrimination	To challenge racism	To appreciate the achievements of thinkers, athletes and activists with disabilities	To justify my actions	To recognise my freedom

EQUALITY ACT 2010 PROTECTED CHARACTERISTICS

IT IS AGAINST THE LAW TO DISCRIMINATE AGAINST SOMEONE BECAUSE OF THEIR...

